Description:

Located at the northeast corner of Green and High Streets is this one and a half story, three bay house of frame construction covered with asbestos shingles. Windows have single pane sash. The west window of the south elevation is a projecting bay and on the west gable wall three windows are grouped into a horizontal band. Gabled dormers extend from the roof. The front entrance is in the center bay of the front elevation. It has a gabled hood above.

This house represents the later development of the south side of Funkstown, much of which occurred during the 20th century.
